BASE BALL
FOOT BALLT'WAS VICTORY YES, BUT
IT COST U. OF M. ENOUGHOHIO STATE GAME MAY BE LAST PATTERSON WILL BE ABLE TO PLAY THIS YEAR.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 22.—Michigan's 14 to 0 victory over Ohio State Saturday marks the close of athletic relations between the two schools as the latter has decided to cast her lot with the western conference. The winning of the game is apt to be expensive for Michigan as it may result in the loss of Patterson the veteran center and this may well be doubly hard as it comes right at the time when the Wolverine line was just beginning to find itself. That one thing was the most encouraging feature of the win Saturday.

Though to a great extent the two teams battled on even terms there was not a time when Ohio was at all threatening while Michigan always seemed about to break away and turn the game into a procession. At nearly every time however there came a wild forward pass, a fumble or some shrewd stuff by the Buckeyes. Ohio's 45 yard run after Graft's fumble for the first touchdown and the kick forward pass Thomson to Craig for 35 yards from where Thomson looked the line for the yards needed to make the last touchdown, were the features of the day, aside from the work of the Michigan line as a whole and Almondinger and Patterson as particular stars.

The game showed also that Michigan has a second string of backs who can be relied upon and who will tear off the yards as well as could be asked. Just who will be used at center is a question but the choice seems to rest between Wright, Musser and Boidley, with the odds on one of the first two. For both sides the new game as the forward pass is called, was more or less of a failure. Michigan did not get away with the play once while O. S. U. was able to complete but twice and one of these times its success was due to the weakness of the offensive. Out, Thompson punted in the last form he has shown this fall but his other work was below par. This was a large extent was due to the change of the Ohio tactics.

EVERS SLATED FOR JOB.

Believed to be Murchy's Selection to Succeed Chance.

Chicago, Ill., Oct. 22.—While President Charles W. Murphy of the Cubs refused to confirm or deny the rumor, it is reported here that John J. Evers, the Cubs' second baseman, had been chosen to lead the west sliders in next year's race for the National League championship flag.

Belief in the report was strengthened by the fact that Evers has been Chance's "first lieutenant" ever since the "home" incident in New York, and has shared with Joe Mauer the field captain honors.

Evers graduated into the Cubs' lineup from a Troy, N. Y. shoe store.

YOUNG WITTKA IS EASY
WINNER OVER OLE NELSONLAST NIGHT'S BOXING EXHIBITION
COMES TO AN END IN EIGHTH ROUND.

Ole Nelson met his Waterloo last night in the Italian hall, when he stacked up against Young Wittka, in what was to have been a ten-round exhibition. Nelson lost the match in the eighth round, taking the count of ten.

It was a grilling mill all the way through, with Wittka showing himself a past master in the art, and with a wallop that showed Nelson on considerably. The latter tried to pull off his famous upper cut swing, but in practically every attempt it failed. Wittka covering splendidly. This was in direct contrast to the way he used to box, and shows he has been subjected to careful training.

The first two rounds were Nelson's, he being the aggressor and landing some stiff body and head wallops. Young Wittka came out of his shell in the third, and from the moment he began to box in earnest, it was obvious it was only a question of whether Nelson could last the scheduled ten rounds.

In the fifth Nelson seemingly fouled Wittka with a stinging blow below the belt. Wittka appealed and walked to his corner with difficulty, and for a time it looked as if the bout would end, with Wittka being declared the winner on an alleged foul. In response to cries from the audience, however, he decided to resume. From then on Nelson was kept busy protecting himself. In the sixth he went to the floor with a heavy blow to the jaw, and took the count of nine. He staggered to his feet and was again receiving punishment when the gong saved him.

The seventh was a repetition of the sixth, with Nelson being fought all over the ring by the clever young Finn. Nelson took another count of eight in this round, through a hard body wallop and a vicious right jab to the face. On coming up for the eighth and final round, it was seen that Nelson was decidedly grayer before the rounds had been in progress many seconds a heavy rain of blows to the face and head sent him to the mat for the count of ten. Wittka's hand was raised by the referee and he was declared the winner.

It was a good bout, and those who witnessed it had their money's worth. Nelson is not the fighter he was four or five years ago, when men like Jimmy Devine, et al., hailing from Milwaukee went down in front of Nelson's wicked swings. He has deteriorated, and while he still shows signs of being able to stand a lot of punishment his career as a fighter evidently is on the wane.

There were two good preliminaries to the main bout, each four-round contests, and each being declared a draw.

MAY ABANDON OLYMPICS.

Excitement Over War Likely to Prevent Contests in Greece.

New York, Oct. 22.—The Olympic games planned by the Greeks for the spring of 1914 will probably have to be abandoned. As matters stand now, the preparations that were well under way for the meet in Athens eighteen months hence have been temporarily put aside. All Greece is a flame with the war fever and the attention that was being given by some of King George's officials to the organization and arrangements for the games in 1914 has been quite naturally diverted to military channels.

The meet that the Greeks had planned for 1914 must not be confused by athletic enthusiasts with the regular Olympic series, promoted every four years under the direct supervision of the international Olympic committee. The Athens Olympians are the handiwork of the Greek Olympic committee, and, though they are sanctioned by the international committee, they are not rated by that body as being of the regular four year series.

DUB SCRAPPER REFUSED TO GO TO SLUMBERLANDJOE JEANETTE TELLS AMUSING
STORY OF HIS EXPERIENCE IN THE PRIZES RING.

While in a confidential mood the other day, Joe Jeanette explained his system of dealing with the various ray marks who fall before his fists to the number of three or four a week, in busy seasons.

"I don't believe there is any use in hurting them any more than is necessary," said the challenger of Johnson. "I just wait for a chance, when the referee is not looking, and whisper to you had better take the count because you are going to go 'out' in the next round, anyway." Usually they take the advice and fall, after I slam in a hard one, but sometimes they get mad and insist on being knocked out. I met one big fellow like that a few weeks ago. I knocked that fellow down so hard I thought he would never get up again, but he was on his feet at nine. 'Say, you don't want to get killed, do you?' I told him. 'The next time I hit you, if you have got to me, you'll stay down.' Well, that fellow fought twice as hard after that, until the referee stopped the bout. He came to me in the dressing room afterward and said: 'Say, Joe, I intended to quit, all right, but when you told me that I got so sore I made up my mind you would have to knock me out.'"

"I don't understand that way of looking at it," Jeanette added. "I am sure I would feel much obliged if some one told me I had no chance before sending me to sleep."

TABOR IS GREATEST MILER

So Say John Paul Jones, Famous Cornell Runner.

New York, Oct. 22.—John Paul Jones (the holder of the world's amateur record for running one mile, is not given to talking much, but like most men who are noncommunicative, the great Cornell runner is well listened to when he does say something. Jones has told a prominent New York sportsman something that is of great interest to followers of athletics. He virtually admitted that he expects to be defeated in the intercollegiate mile championship next spring. In a casual conversation recently, Jones told the sportsman mentioned above that he believes that Norman Tabor of Brown University is the greatest runner in the world at the mile.

The Cornell star declared that as yet Tabor had not found himself. "When that fellow learns to run as he should run," said Jones, "you won't hear anything more about Jones, Kiviat, or Jackson."

Jones bases his opinion on his observations of Tabor's work in the intercollegiate championships and at the Olympic games in Stockholm last summer. In all of his races Tabor misjudged the pace horribly. He invariably lagged in the middle of his race, only to come with terrific rush at the end, just too late to win the honors. In the intercollegiate mile Tabor's great sprint at the end brought him to a tie with Jones.

The 1,500 meter race at Stockholm showed another strong finish by Tabor. This time, also, he started too late, but really finished second though placed third by the judges. Abel Kiviat, who was given second, stated after the race that Tabor beat him, but the judges would not change their decision. At the finish of the "1,500" at Stockholm, Tabor was the strongest man on the track, and he looked fit to have on the last quarter mile records faster than he did.

In the last 150 yards of the 3,000 meter race in the Olympic games, Jones flashed one of the greatest finishes ever seen on any track, and rushed from eighth to third place in that short distance. It was nothing but this wonderful sprint of Tabor's which cut down Britons, Swedes and Americans alike, that gave the team contest to Uncle Sam. Tabor should have won the individual honors easily, but he was too far back when he opened up for the home run.

Hill, left guard, who weighs 151 pounds, is the heaviest man in the Carlisle Indians' lineup this fall.

NO, JAKE WON'T HAVE TO WORRY OVER COAL BILL.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 22.—Most of the Red Sox have left town after receiving more money for six months' work than ever before. There is still more cash to come, for some of them are going on the stage and others are to lend their names and pictures to advertising propositions. Jake Stahl has received about $35,000, comprising $10,000 salary, $4,824.69, his share in the world's series gate, and interest on his stock in the club. The club earned about $150,000 during the season and Stahl has about 5 per cent of the stock.

Speakers' earnings amount to about $14,000, including $6,000 salary, $2,000 for advertising and $1,000 for writing stories of the world's series games. Joe Wood has garnered about $13,500 in similar fashion.

SPORTING EDITOR'S NOTES.

Big Ed Reulbach, the Cubs' great pitcher, pitched regular championship ball in the Chicago city series.

In signing Mordecai Brown to manage the Colonels, it looks as if the Louisville owners have copied the right party.

Two famous .400 hitters of former days, Hugh Duffy and Jesse Burkett, were paid once more during the championship games.

President James Gaffney, of the Boston Nationals, is cleaning house. He will have a new manager, a new secretary and new players for next season.

A new Central League of eight, instead of twelve clubs, will probably be formed with the following cities in the circuit: Grand Rapids, South Bend, Fort Wayne, Springfield, Dayton, Youngstown, Canton and Erie.

Just to show the advance dope of the world's series run for Sweden: Young Forrest Cady proved to be a better batsman than the veteran Bill Carrigan; the star outfield of the Red Sox had nothing on the Giants' gardeners; "Red" Murray came back and was there with the wallop; Yerkes, of the Sox, didn't blow up as was predicted; Bodent, the unknown, pitched his way into the baseball hall of fame and Heinie Wagner upset the dope by playing the best all-round game of any player in either outfit.

Work on Yale's new football stadium and clubhouse is to be started within the next few weeks.

McGuire, of the Harvard eleven, is showing more activity at field guard than he did before he was hurt.

Swathmore gained 282 yards by rushing against Pennsylvania, the Quakers' plays from scrimmage covering 153 yards only.

MANY ARE FROM
THIS DISTRICTLarge Number of Copper Country
Students at Normal

The enrollment at the Marquette Normal school this term is 300. One hundred and fifty-seven of this number are attending the Normal for the first time. The enrollment is the largest for a regular term since the Normal opened. The summer school enrollment often reaches a higher figure, however.

It is unusual to have the new students outnumber those who have attended the Normal before. As a rule many students taking work for a life certificate for teaching, who are required to spend more than two years at the institution, swell the attendance.

The students who are working for life certificates number 187 this term. Of the others, about sixty are working for graded school certificates. Fifteen students are specializing in domestic science and sixteen students are specializing in kindergarten. The special students, or those who are taking up college work without following the prescribed course for a Normal school certificate, number over ten. Most of these students are men.

One-third of the enrollment this term are Marquette students. Incoming leads among the cities of residence, twenty-eight students having been enrolled from there. Neenah comes next with twenty-three. Calumet sends fourteen students to the Normal, Hancock and Escanaba each ten, Iron Mountain twelve, Crystal Falls seven, Houghton six, and Ironwood, Gladstone and Michigamme five each. Laurium, Lake Linden, Bessemer and Stambaugh four each, Ontonagon, Princeton, Nubling, and Ishkond three each. Seven villages other than the places named each send two students to the Normal, while twenty other villages each send one student. The entire upper peninsula is represented at the school, and there is hardly a county which has not sent at least one student. The copper country students are:

Calumet—Lulu Paul, Lovetta Varanham, Lillian Trevillion, Mildred Ensworth, Agnes Harriman, Rene Soddy, Elizabeth Mantz, Lucille Larson, Cecelia Schroeder, Ella Crowley, Mary Sullivan, Esther O'Sullivan, Elsie Williams, Rose M. Mielchik.

Hancock—Lucile Steer, Anna Carroll, Hannah Mattson, Florence O'Neill, Irene O'Neill, May E. Gergin, Allen M. D. Canfield, Anna K. Ople, Marjory E. Ryan, May M. Keough.

Laurium—Florence Jarling, Helen Fuller, Elizabeth Steiner, Ina Pales, Lake Linden—Mathilda Rubischung, Rose A. Prince, Arnetta Jirley, Anna M. Brown.

FINN BREAKS 3 RECORDS.

Kolehmainen Wins International Marathon From Holmar.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 22.—Three world's professional running records were broken by William Kolehmainen of Finland this afternoon when he won an international marathon race around a circular track in the stadium here.

He covered 26 miles, 385 yards in 2:29:39 1-3, bettering the record of 2:31:21 made at Powder Mill, Scotland in a marathon race last year by Hans Holmer, who finished second in Sunday's event. Kolehmainen created new 25 and 26 mile figures, 2:22:20 3-5 and 2:28:32 respectively.

WALTER MILLER CHAMPION

Duluth, Minn., Oct. 22.—Walter Miller of St. Paul threw Ed Adamson of Waterloo, Iowa, in two straight falls, one in 47 and the other in 16 minutes, here last night. Both were secured with scissors holds. The defeat of Adamson places Miller at the head of the list of contenders for the middle-weight championship.

CALLS FOR TAX ROLL.

It Soon Will Be Placed in County Treasurer's Hands.

The tax roll for the village of Laurium has been asked for by County Treasurer Edward G. Bushleigh, and it soon will be placed in his hands.

This means that the taxpayers who have not paid their taxes at the time the roll is placed in the hands of the county treasurer, will have to square up with him and incidentally pay an extra per cent for collection.

As far as can be learned there is about $7,000 outstanding in real estate and personal taxes and while it compares favorably with other years, it must not be forgotten that the county treasurer is calling for the roll much earlier this year. It probably will not be possible to complete the tax roll with the list of delinquents for a few days, but assistant treasurer, Miss Mary Gipp, will get busy right away and as soon as completed, the list, with the delinquents, will be returned to the county official.

LUMBERMEN ARE SCARCE.

There is an unusual shortage of men for work in the lumber camps, it is reported, and local contractors are having considerable difficulty in securing complements for their respective camps.

The Morrison estate, which operates camps at Offway, Motley, Stumpington, and other copper country points, is advertising for lumbermen, and it is expected other local contractors will take the same means in an endeavor to get men.

LEAGUE PROSPECTS NOT BRIGHT

A meeting of the Crescent hockey team has been called for Sunday morning in the office at the palestra at 10:30 o'clock. Officers for the ensuing season will be elected, and other business of importance transacted. It is probable that the Crescent team will represent Calumet and Laurium this winter in independent hockey, as the prospects are not bright for the organization of a league.

LAURIUM BREVITIES.

Rudolph Nelson left yesterday afternoon for Chicago and other cities.

Miss Anna Driscoll has returned from a visit with Torch Lake friends.

Justice David Armit, who is deputy county clerk for the issuance of deer licenses in Laurium, issued his third license yesterday. There are several other applications on file.

Mrs. Hardy S. Awry of Hamilton, Ont., is visiting her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Richard Edwards.

Richard Rowe and Joseph Wilmer are spending a few days in Keweenaw county.

The funeral of the late Leo Latoski, of Laurium, will take place tomorrow morning, with services at St. Anthony's Polish church, at 9 o'clock, and interment in Lake View cemetery.

The remains of the six month's old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Opland, of Ahmeek street, will be interred tomorrow afternoon. Services will first be held at the family residence at 2 o'clock, Rev. S. Romsahl, of the Norwegian Lutheran church, officiating.
